

ELMHURST UNIVERSITY

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Free Graduate Course Voucher

Elmhurst University has its roots in the United Church of Christ (UCC) and to this day, our vision and core values align. To further this revered connection, a free graduate course voucher program was created for eligible members of the UCC.

About the Program

Designed for members of a UCC church, the Elmhurst University-United Church of Christ free graduate course voucher provides the opportunity for eligible members to take their first graduate course for free. Offered through the Office of Admission, members will be granted a full tuition waiver to their first course in a master's degree or graduate certificate program at Elmhurst. To learn more about our graduate programs, visit elmhurst.edu/graduate.

To Be Eligible

- You must be a member in good standing of a UCC church
- You must be admitted to a master's degree or graduate certificate program at Elmhurst

Voucher Policy

- Voucher is non-transferable
- Only one UCC free course voucher can be used per individual
- Eligible congregation member must be admitted to a master's degree or graduate certificate program at Elmhurst
- Voucher covers course tuition only. Student is responsible for all course materials and fees.
- Voucher is not applicable to full time graduate programs in health care.

To be considered for a free graduate course voucher, contact:

Office of Admission
(630) 617-3400
admit@elmhurst.edu

